

MAP update

From the frontline – interview with Sarah Tombling

Q So, for which part of the MAP project are you responsible?

A Communications

Q In terms of “reasons to be cheerful”, what have you managed to progress thus far?

A We have a new welcome pack; I receive a lot of encouraging comments about the e-letters; and we now have our website!

Q What tasks have you started which are now “work-in-progress”

A Well, we are still working on the Notices, trying to get this right without prolonging the process unduly; we are part way through the approval process of replacing the crucifix; and Bob Silver has kindly offered to make a new notice board for us.

Q Any new ideas/initiatives on the boil?

A Not really. I want to make sure we get all these finished first, rather than have too many part-finished projects on the go at the same time. And don't forget, keeping the website fresh will be an ongoing task – a bit like painting the Forth Road Bridge!

Q Any prayer points for the St. John's folk?

A I think there are 3 main ones: firstly, that everything I do under this banner helps everyone to feel part of St. John's; secondly, to help me get the balance right between too much and too little information; and thirdly, to help me to a better job of “signposting” people with issues, comments and questions to the person or persons best equipped to handle them.
